

FAIRFAX COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

ACTIVITY REPORT

DECEMBER 17, 2010

ACTIVITIES REPORTED THROUGH DECEMBER 15, 2010

PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE -- 703-246-2253

There are four sections in this report: Section I: WEEKLY ARRESTS FOR SELECTED CHARGES Section II: MAJOR INCIDENTS; Section III: PROPERTY CRIMES; and, Section IV: ANIMAL RELATED INCIDENTS. Sections are appropriately identified. Within the sections, incidents are organized by station, then by type of offense. They are listed alphabetically by street address.

Addresses shown indicate blocks and not specific locations. Thus an entry showing Chain Bridge Road 4100 would mean the 4100 block of Chain Bridge Road, not the address 4100 Chain Bridge Road.

An asterisk (*) before an item indicates that a news release was distributed on that offense.

RETAIL ANTI-THEFT TEAMS/ARRESTS: Phony credit cards, stolen identifications, and out-of-state shoplifting scammers are being targeted by Fairfax County Police Retail Anti-Theft Teams (RATT) this holiday season. In an annual effort that began "Black Friday," RATT officers have arrested dozens of people, many of whom face both felony and misdemeanor charges. They've also recovered hundreds of thousands of dollars worth in merchandise; including one haul of approximately $58,000.00 worth of stolen cologne, perfume, and clothing items, later recovered in a hotel room in Prince William County. Professional shoplifting rings are nothing new, but according to detectives they seem to be especially prevalent this holiday season. Teams of Fairfax County officers are working in shopping malls and retail businesses in both uniformed and plain-clothes capacities. They are targeting all shoplifters but particularly the “professionals” that distract store employees while associates across the store attempt to conceal and steal merchandise.

One recent incident took place Saturday, December 11 resulting in the arrests of three New York men who were allegedly using phony identification numbers to set up multiple iPhone accounts. Working with store personnel and loss prevention officers, RATT officers investigated the scam that uncovered over 50 stolen identifications and a trunk-load of iPhones, bound for potential re-sale back in New York. In a subsequent search of the vehicle, marijuana was also discovered. The men were each charged with obtaining money under false pretenses and possession of marijuana. Additionally Khurram Syed, 26 of Hicksville was also charged with identification theft of more than 50 identifications. The other men were Rameez Mahmood, 23 of Malverne and Sandeep Pillai, 21 of Hickville. ANIMAL CONTROL DIVISION

NEUTER AND RETURN PROGRAM: The Fairfax County Animal Shelter has altered its 1000th feral cat marking the success of its two-year-old trap, neuter and return (TNR) program, which includes humanely trapping, spaying, neutering and vaccinating feral cats, then returning them to their outdoor homes. The goals of the program are to decrease the following numbers; unwanted kittens born each year to outdoor cats; the intake of cats and kittens at the shelter; and the euthanasia of cats in Fairfax County. As part of the TNR program, the Fairfax County Animal Shelter provides free spay/neuter and vaccinations for feral cats who reside in Fairfax County. The program is funded by private donations from the sale of the Virginia Department of Motor Vehicles Animal Friendly License Plates. For each plate purchased by a Fairfax County resident, $15 is donated back to the shelter, which is using the money, in part, for TNR. More than 230 citizens have attended the shelter's Helping Community Cats classes to become eligible to use the resources offered by the shelter's program for outdoor cats.

Citizens who attend the classes are trained how to perform TNR and become part of a "citizen army" of trappers, transporters and caregivers who provide ongoing management for feral cat colonies. "We estimate that the TNR program has prevented somewhere between 3,000 and 6,000 litters of kittens from being born," says Karen Diviney, director of the Fairfax County Animal Shelter. "Our hope is that in time, we will start to see this program translate into fewer cats coming into our shelter and fewer homeless cats being euthanized in our community." To be eligible for the shelter's TRN program, citizens must first attend the Helping Community Cats Workshops held twice monthly in Fairfax County. For more information about attending an upcoming class or about TNR, please contact the shelter at 703-830-1100.
